

The Interior Journal.

E. C. WALTON.

THE annual report of the Kentucky Institution for the Blind, at Louisville, shows what a great work is being done for the unfortunates. The number of pupils in charge during the year was 122 white and 20 colored, making 142 in all. Every boy receives instruction in the use of the simple tools of the carpenter, and every girl is taught to sew by hand and by machine, and many of them become skilled enough to cut out and make their own dresses. Broom-making, simple upholstery, hammock netting, mop-making and canework is taught to the boys. The advanced pupils are taught the use of the typewriter and become skilled in its use. There are two baseball nines and an athletic team. A football 11 has been organized that has won some games when matched with similar teams from seeing schools.

Mr. J. T. EMBRY, of this place, is meeting with much encouragement in his race for doorkeeper of the Senate and it looks to us as if he will be a sure winner. Backed by Senator R. L. Hubble and Representative J. M. Alverson, two splendid workers, he gets such a good start at home that we do not believe his opponents can any thing like catch him in the race. If the State Senators of this grand old Commonwealth knew what an indomitable worker for the democratic party Mr. Embry is they would elect him by acclamation.

EDITOR LANDRAM, of the Lancaster Record, is working overtime since his severe spell and he is making his paper even more readable than ever. There are few, if any better, and certainly no more popular country paper in the State than the Record.

REPRESENTATIVE BENNETT, a new member from New York, tries to jump into notoriety by offering a bill to cut off 35 Congressmen from the South, because of Negro disfranchisement. Mr. Bennett seems to be the biggest "ike" of the lot.

A LOUISVILLE man attempted suicide because his wife wouldn't kiss him. Poor fellow; he doesn't know how much he has to be thankful for.

POLITICAL.

The House yesterday fixed the holiday recess by providing for adjournment next Thursday, until January 4. State Senator Grady, of the Todd-Logan-Simpson district, has declared for Judge Paynter for U. S. Senator.

The State Prison Commission, in its annual report, recommends separate cellhouses for prisoners suffering from consumption.

Two State normal schools will be provided for Kentucky in a bill which will be introduced at the coming session of the Legislature.

There is much opposition to the Santo Domingo treaty in the Senate, and it is considered not improbable that it will fail of ratification.

Judge James E. Cantrill, who was elected appellate judge a year ago and has been ill since, sat with the court Saturday and handed down his first decision.

The annual report of the Fourth Assistant Postmaster General shows that at the beginning of the fiscal year Kentucky ranked third in the number of post-offices.

Curtis F. Burnam, State Senator from Richmond, is mentioned as a probable candidate for the Republican legislative caucus nomination for United States Senator.

We have $15 in our inside pocket which says that if he can't do any better Senator Blackburn will trot out Dave Smith again to enter the Senatorial derby.—Frankfort Journal.

Gov. Beckham has appointed Judge John D. Carroll, of Henry county, to try the $10,000 damage case of Earl Woodford against H. B. Scrivener and Sheriff McCord, of Clark county.

Representative Bennett, of New York City, a new member of Congress, introduced a bill cutting down the Southern representation in the House where ever Negroes have been disfranchised.

It is believed in Washington that President Roosevelt intends to place Maj. Gen. Weston, a native of Louisville, at the head of the army upon the retirement of Gen. Bates next spring.

The Appellate Division of the New York Supreme Court handed down a decision that a man cannot be deprived of his vote even though some one else has already voted fraudulently in his name.

Mr. McCreary, of Kentucky, introduced in the Senate a bill to reduce the tariff of the United States by providing that there shall be levied upon all articles imported from foreign countries a rate equal to three-fourths of the present schedule.

The caucus of the Republican members of the House decided to support a bill for the admission of Oklahoma and Indian Territory as one State to be called Oklahoma, and the admission of Arizona and New Mexico as one State to be called Arizona. The caucus did not consider the question of prohibition for the proposed State of Oklahoma.

Former Governor Richard Yates, of Illinois, has announced as a candidate for the United States Senate.

A. D. James will retire Wednesday or Thursday as United States Marshal of the western district of Kentucky. He will be succeeded by G. W. Long, of Leitchfield.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

Dee Crawford was run over and killed by an L. & N. train near Middlesboro.

S. Owsley & Son's store at Middlesboro was robbed of $2,400 in cash and $80 in checks.

W. Randall Cook, formerly of this county, has been made supervisor of roads of Pulaski at $500 per year.

The fourth trial at Barbourville of Bal Carnes, charged with killing John and Clark Mills, resulted in his acquittal.

Maj. E. S. Helburn has been elected Mayor of Middlesboro, to fill out the unexpired term of W. H. Turner, resigned.

Mrs. Martha Young, wife of Hayden I. Young, died at the home of her grandson, E. L. Grubbs, in Junction City, aged 78.

Bourbonville is excited over the reported finding of indictments against many prominent men in Knox county for alleged bribery in elections.

The decomposed body of John Barnes, a mute, was found in the woods near Somerset. There is every evidence of foul play. Some two years ago Barnes shot and wounded Tom Trimble.

The court of appeals decided in favor of the Cumberland railroad in its controversy with the L. & N. Railroad Co. over the right of way through Greasy Creek Gap in Bell county.

Four men were dangerously injured by the explosion of a keg of powder at the Wiona mines near Middlesboro. They were preparing to make a blast when the powder was accidentally ignited.

The court of appeals upheld the contract between the city of Harrodsburg and the Harrodsburg Water Company, holding that the city is responsible to the Water Company and must pay the $20,000 fees which are claimed.

The firm of G. A. Peyton, which has been doing a big grocery business here for the past few years, comes out this month under a new name, Peyton & Miller, Mr. C. E. Miller of the L. & N. being the new partner. The business is one of the best established in Middlesboro.—News.

The Queen & Crescent Route let the contract to the American Bridge Company to rebuild the eight bridges between Helenwood and Oakdale, Tenn. The cost of rebuilding will be in the neighborhood of $250,000. The Q. & C. has also let a contract for a modern $20,000 depot at Danville.

The court of appeals affirmed the decision of the Boyle circuit court in the case of the L. & N. railroad against Wilson Helm, in which the plaintiff secured a verdict of $5,000. Helm was a section hand on the railroad and was injured in a collision. Negligence was alleged by the plaintiff, who lost a leg as a result of the accident.

Here and There.

Six bank robbers at Suffield, Conn., blew open the safe of the Suffield Savings Bank and made way with $50,000 worth of registered bonds and stocks, not negotiable. They overlooked $3,000 in cash.

The Secretary of the Interior has sent to Congress a draft of a bill fixing a maximum penalty of $10,000 fine or ten years' imprisonment, or both for fraudulent attempts to obtain title to public lands.

Seven hundred men were thrown out of employment by a fire which destroyed the main building of the Pittsburgh steel hoop works at Pittsburgh, Pa.

The jury at Dixon, in the case against Mrs. Emma Roach and her two brothers, charged with the killing of the woman's husband, returned a verdict of guilty. Mrs. Roach's punishment was fixed at 21 years in the penitentiary, while each of the brothers was sentenced to 11 years' imprisonment.

Furious Fighting.

"For seven years," writes Geo. W. Boffman, of Harper, Wash., "I had a bitter battle, with chronic stomach and liver trouble, but at last I won, and cured my diseases, by the use of Electric Bitters. I unhesitatingly recommend them to all, and don't intend in the future to be without them in the house. They are certainly a wonderful medicine, to have cured such a bad case as mine." Sold, under guarantee to do the same for you, by G. L. Penny, Stanford, Lyne Bros., of Crab Orchard; at 50c a bottle. Try them today.

THOSE who think an American can not compose any thing really great will be convinced of their error if they will go to-morrow evening and hear Miss Virginia Bourne play "The Witch's Dance," written by America's greatest piano composer.

A COMPETITIVE examination for appointment to Normal course at Lexington will be held in my office Dec. 23. Lincoln county is entitled to four. Must not be under 17 years old. Garland Singleton, Superintendent.

CHURCH MATTERS.

Rev. W. A. Montgomery, a well-known educator and divine of near Knoxville, is dead, aged 75.

The members of the Broadhead Baptist Sunday school will give an entertainment in the Hall over the Citizens Bank Christmas night.

Eld. J. G. Livingston has been called unanimously by the Goshorn church for next year, which will make about 26 years for him that he has served that congregation and we hope he will continue to serve them for many years to come.

La Grippe and Pneumonia.

Pneumonia often follows la grippe but never follows the use of Foley's Honey and Tar. It cures la grippe coughs and prevents pneumonia and consumption. As for Foley's Honey and Tar and refuse any substitute offered. Mr. G. Vacher, of 157 Osgood St., Chicago writes: My wife had a severe case of la grippe three years ago, and it left her with a terrible cough. She tried a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar and it gave immediate relief. A 50 cent bottle cured her cough entirely. Refuse substitutes. Penny's Drug Store.

State troops will be asked for if trouble occurs over the finding of indictments in the election investigation pending at Barbourville. Foreman Woodson has asked protection and has been assured that if he should need protection it would be furnished.

THE COLUMBIA.

Greatcoat for young men is mightily well named. Big loose garment with all the grace and swaggerness that belong in a young fellow's coat. The shoulders, lapels, front and all the wear-telling parts are hand-worked. The manufacturers out-did themselves in the making of the garments but hardly did themselves justice in the price. We've passed our advantage on to you. The coat is worth $12. It is marked $10.

W. E. PERKINS, Crab Orchard, Ky.
